Borrowing Money.

Borrowing money upon the installment plan is attended with these advantages: The loan can be repaid in small monthly amounts which include the interest and part of the principal, so that by the expiration of the term it can be all paid off, and great convenience to the borrower. The rate of interest is generally lower. The expenses of obtaining the money are not so great as in ordinary loans, and if it is borrowed upon good paying property then it often happens that the result will meet the monthly installments and in time pay off the debt.

For further and other particulars inquire of W. H. BROOKS, Agent for Savings and Loan Society, may 14-1t No. 12 Spring Street.

Los Angeles Herald

TUESDAY, JUNE 8, 1875.

THEODORE TILTON says the reason he stands the abuse of BRECHER's lawyers without flinching, is that he bore the same sort of thing for twenty-five years from his mother-in-law.

It is remarked that all the axes, saw-bucks, shovels, etc., found in the ruins of Pompeii are made light; about right for women's use. Man has fallen a long ways within eighteen hundred years.

LUCY STONE cites as an evidence that women should not wear corsets that Eve did not wear them. The argument is convincing. Before Eve became the wickedest woman in the world, she did not wear anything. Ergo, LUCY.

KANSAS and Nebraska are pest ridden. For some years past the grasshoppers have eaten everything of the vegetable kind that has peeped from the ground, and this year, if accounts are true, the same fate awaits the labor of the husbandman. This species of misfortune cannot go on forever. Something must be done, or those broad prairies will again become the howling wilderness of half a century ago. The best grasshopper exterminator we ever knew is the Indian. The noble red man is fond of grasshopper stew, fry, bake and boil, and he is not averse to them on the shell. A good grasshopper season is always one of abundance to the Lo family. This idea ought to be hint enough to the Government to immediately convert Kansas and Nebraska into Indian reservations. Turn a half dozen tribes loose on that territory, and in two years not a grasshopper will be found within its broad confines.

Question Answered.

The question is asked by a correspondent, "Is irrigation healthy?" This subject has occupied the attention of States and communities for over two hundred years. Scientific commissions have been appointed and the result of death rates given in irrigated and non-irrigated districts. Comparing a period say of ten years consecutively, the result shows the death rate in non-irrigated districts 26 to 1,000 and in the irrigated districts, 27 to 1,000. The ratio of death rates in the irrigated districts would be much greater were it not for the precautions taken to compel irrigators to have drainage conduits around the tracts that have water privilege, the prevention of any water to stagnate in the field, to run off in the street or public highway, and forcing them to have the percolating water conveyed back to the irrigating canal at the level below. Neglect of this duty involves a heavy fine, imprisonment, and, at the discretion of the water magistracy, the forfeiture of the right of water forever. What a lesson for us?

Trouble in Camp.

The Independents of San Francisco are far from happy. One of those bitter dissensions which will at times disturb the harmony of the best regulated families has presented itself and the "reformers" are wrangling like irate felines and determined canines, the Bulletin and Call, "which is" FITCH and PICKERING, ESTEE, SWIFT, and COWDERY, have undertaken to manage the craft without the assistance of HIGGINS, CHUTE & Co., and hence these tears. It is a disastrous quarrel because it arrays the ornamental figures-heads of the "reform" craft on one side and the working crew on the other. It is rank mutiny produced by the incompetency of the commanding officers. BILL HIGGINS is the shrewdest, and by far the most influential politician within the ranks of the Independent party of San Francisco, or, for that matter of the State, and without his co-operation the leaders of that organization cannot control a large element in San Francisco which acted with them two years ago. It was HIGGINS who secured votes for BOOTH for Senator in the Legislature and prevented others from seceding. He was the ablest worker in that contest and there is little doubt but it is to him BOOTH owes his election. The attempt to repudiate him cannot be endorsed by Senator BOOTH without an exhibition of ingratitude which we do not believe he can be induced to make. On the whole we are inclined to the opinion that the "Ornamental reformers" have involved themselves in a difficulty which will prove a hornet's nest of no small dimensions. Our sympathy is with HIGGINS, CHUTE & Co., and our money goes that they will force the figure heads to an unconditional surrender.

Here and Elsewhere.

Our exchanges from the middle and Northern portions of the State are giving estimates of the crop this season, and their statements are not as high as could be desired. The fruit crop around the foothills of the Sacramento valley was so damaged by the frost that an almost total failure is reported, and at best nothing more than is required for local consumption will be produced. The Grass Valley Union estimates that the grain product of the middle portion of the State will not exceed half a crop. To the Los Angeles valley farmer these reports sound strange. Here the frost did not seriously affect the fruit, and almost if not quite the average crop will be gathered. In fact, owing to the increase in the number of bearing trees, more fruit will be grown in this valley this season than ever before. In some localities the frost will slightly reduce the yield of grapes, but this is more than made up by the increase in the number of bearing vines. Of grain we shall—in fact, we might say we have—harvested fully three-fourths of a crop, for the harvest is nearly over. A well posted farmer informs the HERALD that Los Angeles valley will produce more bushels of corn this season than at any previous year since the settlement of the country. This is a very favorable comparison for a county that so many people are just now devoting their time and talent to crying down and maligning. We have repeatedly asserted that when crops are light in Los Angeles valley they will be still lighter in other parts of the State, and the truth of our assertion is proven by the reports of our exchanges. We predict that in a few years this valley will be regarded as more certain to produce a crop one year with another than any other portion of the State, except perhaps that part of the Santa Clara valley which lies immediately around San Francisco bay. Los Angeles valley will one day support a million people.

State School Books.

That is not a bad idea suggested by the Sacramento Bea that the Faculty of the University shall compile our school books and the State publish them. If this plan is acted upon it will save the people millions of dollars. By the process we shall secure school books made by school masters—men who have fitted themselves for the profession of teaching and spent the greater portion of their lives within the school room. Whose judgment is superior on the subject of school books to that of the liberal-minded, large-hearted, experienced teacher? Such men guide the child from the primary school to and through the graduating class, and surely such men know best the class of studies and the character of books which will most rapidly and solidly educate the young. California has a number of old teachers—polished scholars—who, we have no doubt, could compile school books superior in every respect to any now in use. Take, for instance, Dr. W. T. LUCKY, Superintendent of the schools of Los Angeles, who has just closed his thirty-fourth consecutive year as a teacher. What is to prevent a man like this, with material and leisure at his disposal, from compiling a school book of great value? His many years of careful study, not only of books but of youth, from infancy to years of discretion, eminently fit him for the duties of school book compiler. Then we have Dr. CARR and many others of like experience and capability. The item of publication is a mere nothing. The State will copyright the compilations of her educational professors, and supply the people with a series of school text books for all grades, from the lowest to the highest, at a small per cent. of the sum now absorbed by school book rings. This plan will also free us from the expense of constant change which is being made at almost every meeting of the State Board of Education.

Steel Rails for California.

The Philadelphia Press of May 20th has the following: As an evidence of the improvement in the iron trade and in railroad building we may mention that the Pennsylvania Steel Company are at work on an order for five thousand tons of steel rails for the Southern Pacific Railroad Company of California. The Bethlehem Works are filling a similar order for the same road. These rails are to be shipped to San Francisco and will be used in filling the gap of one hundred miles which now exists between the Los Angeles division of the Southern Pacific and the Tulare valley division. With the completion of this portion there will be a continuous rail communication from San Francisco to a point one hundred miles South of Los Angeles, or about seven hundred from the Pacific coast metropolis. It is the intention of the company to extend the rails to Fort Yuma without delay, so as to accommodate the Arizona and North Mexican trade. As long as we can make iron for California we will have something to do.

The Santa Barbara Floods.

WADSWORTH, Nev., June 7th.—A man and woman, supposed to be Jack Cotton and Mrs. Norton of Santa Barbara, were arrested here last night by Deputy Sheriff Allen and taken to Reno for safe keeping. These parties arrived here Thursday or Friday, May 13th or 14th, together with two children, Susie and Johnnie. They took rooms at the Wadsworth Hotel, where they stopped one night only. Finding a vacant tenement in town they accepted it. The day following their arrival Cotton set out to find employment, but not being successful at first he manifested great uneasiness. The peculiar movements of both were noticed by certain parties as indicating something wrong. They represented that they came directly from Santa Barbara, and previously from San Francisco. Cotton found employment and commenced work on the 5th inst. for Wm. McPherson, in the employ of the Central Pacific Railroad; where he worked faithfully up to the time of his arrest. This man, Cotton, listened to the reading of the account of the murder in the Record-Union of the 3d instant without manifesting the least sign of uneasiness, and when arrested made no resistance.

We Don't Get the Black Hills.

WASHINGTON, June 6th.—As the visit of the Sioux to negotiate for the relinquishment of the Black Hills has proved a failure and the Indians have left much dissatisfied, difficulties are apprehended with the whites seeking to settle in the territory. It is estimated by the agents that the Sioux muster 3,000 to 5,000 warriors. About half are armed with rifles and the remainder with bows and arrows. The Government, meantime, will endeavor to prevent adventures from going into their country, still having some hope of effecting the treaty with the Sioux.

Won't Resign.

WASHINGTON, June 6th.—Concerning the rumor circulated that Secretary Delano had tendered his resignation, to take effect July 1st, and that ex-Senator Scott of Pennsylvania would be appointed in his place, Secretary Delano says the whole story has not the slightest foundation.

This evening the Board of Supervisors will continue the consideration of the proposition to purchase the Spring Valley Waterworks, with the Calaveras Valley scheme tacked on. Well informed persons believe that seven members, being a majority, will vote with the Spring Valley Company through this evening.

Republican Delegates.

SHASTA, June 6th.—The Shasta County Republican Convention held here yesterday elected the following delegates to the State and Congressional Conventions: G. G. Kimball, Aaron Bell, John V. Scott and E. Wagner, unopposed.

Supposed Robbers Arrested.

STOCKTON, June 6th.—Saturday evening Jerome Meyers, ex-Chief of Police, and J. B. Hume, connected with Wells, Fargo & Co.'s detective force, arrested two men named John Sansome and Frank Barker, alias French, on suspicion of being concerned in the robbery of the safe of C. T. Kaulback, agent of Wells, Fargo & Co. at Quincy, Minn., on the night of May 24th, 1875. When arrested, Sansome had some $600 in his possession and Barker about $200. Both the prisoners left this afternoon in custody for Quincy.
